

Great Homeschool Conventions, Inc.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

When you register for one of our conventions or other events, or when you join our email list, you affirm that you have read and agreed to our Privacy Policy and to our Terms and Conditions.

If you purchase registration/tickets or anything else from our site, we may retain your name, email address and/or other contact information to verify your order. If you sign up for our email updates or newsletter, we may retain your name, email address and/or other information you provided for the purpose of sending you those updates or newsletter.

We also occasionally send special offers to our customer and newsletter list on behalf of other companies or organizations whom we think offer products or services that may interest and benefit you. These companies or organizations provide compensation (financial or otherwise) to us for doing so, and this plays a huge role in helping us keep convention registration pricing as affordable as possible. These companies would then receive your personal information only if you decide to interact with them directly. We may also share your contact information with our convention sponsors or partners. This includes, but is not limited to, organizations such as the National Center for Life and Liberty.

We store and maintain our email list with Robly. You can find their privacy policy here: <https://support.robly.com/privacy-policy/>. You may unsubscribe at any time from our email list, as well as request that we completely delete your information.

Credit card transactions are handled by Authorize.net, and they also receive a copy of your name, address, and payment information so they can process the transaction. We do not retain any payment information on our site or servers.

Refunds/Cancellations Policy

There are no refunds and no exchanges. If you are unable to attend, there are no refunds... just as there are no refunds or exchanges for tickets to a sporting event, concert, or similar event. However, if you are unable to attend, we will gladly transfer your registration to any upcoming GHC regional convention that is taking place within the next 12 months -- we simply need an email request from you that includes your name, address, phone number and the Dates & Location of the convention you'd like to transfer your registration to.

Privacy Notice

You also affirm that you have read and agreed to our Privacy Notice which is published on our website.

Privacy Policy

Who we are

Our website address is <https://greathomeschoolconventions.com>.

What personal data we collect and why we collect it

Comments

When visitors leave comments on the site, we collect the data shown in the comments form as well as the visitor's IP address and browser user agent string to help spam detection.

An anonymized string created from your email address (also called a hash) may be provided to the Gravatar service to see if you are using it. The Gravatar service privacy policy is available here: <https://automattic.com/privacy/>. After approval of your comment, your profile picture is visible to the public in the context of your comment.

Media

If you upload images to the website, you should avoid uploading images with embedded location data (EXIF GPS) included. Visitors to the website can download and extract any location data from images on the website.

Contact forms

If you submit a contact form on our site, we store a copy of what you submitted for our internal reference, and it is sent to one of our administrative assistants.

If you sign up for freebies or for information on one of our regional conventions, we add the information you submit to our email list, handled by Robly. You can find their privacy policy here: <https://support.robly.com/privacy-policy/>. You may unsubscribe at any time from our email list, as well as request that we completely delete your information.

Purchases

If you purchase registration/tickets or anything else from our site, we retain a copy of your name, address, and contact information to verify your order.

Credit card transactions are handled by Authorize.net, and they also receive a copy of your name, address, and payment information so they can process the transaction. We do not retain any payment information on our site or servers.

Cookies

If you leave a comment on our site you may opt-in to saving your name, email address, and website in cookies. These are for your convenience so that you do not have to fill in your details again when you leave another comment. These cookies will last for one year.

If you have an account and you log in to this site, we will set a temporary cookie to determine if your browser accepts cookies. This cookie contains no personal data and is discarded when you close your browser.

When you log in, we will also set up several cookies to save your login information and your screen display choices. Login cookies last for two days, and screen options cookies last for a year. If you select “Remember Me”, your login will persist for two weeks. If you log out of your account, the login cookies will be removed.

If you edit or publish an article, an additional cookie will be saved in your browser. This cookie includes no personal data and simply indicates the post ID of the article you just edited. It expires after 1 day.

Embedded content from other websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracing your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

Analytics

We collect site usage statistics using Google Analytics, but do not collect or store any personally-identifying information.

Who we share your data with (updated March 24, 2020)

As of March 24, 2020, we reserve the right to share your information -- including name, address, phone number or email address -- with our Convention Sponsors.

We also occasionally send special offers to our list on behalf of other companies or organizations whom we think offer products or services that may interest and benefit you. These companies or organizations provide compensation (financial or otherwise) to us for doing so, and this plays a huge role in helping us keep convention registration pricing as affordable as possible. These companies would then receive your personal information only if you decide to interact with them directly.

How long we retain your data

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata are retained indefinitely. This is so we can recognize and approve any follow-up comments automatically instead of holding them in a moderation queue.

For users who purchase products or register on our website, we also store the personal information they provide in their user profile. All users can see, edit, or delete their personal information at any time (except they cannot change their username). Website administrators can also see and edit that information.

If you submit a contact form, we retain a copy of what you submitted for our internal staff to access.

What rights you have over your data

If you have an account on this site, have submitted a form, or have left comments, you can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.

Where we send your data

Visitor comments may be checked through an automated spam detection service.
